

FATHER HALST ACCUSED.

His Reasons for Not Turning Over $100 Trust Funds to Mr. Roth.

Rev. Anthony Halst of Long Island City has been summoned to the police court there to answer a charge of misappropriating $106 trust funds. The complaint against the priest was made by Edmund Roth of 703 Flushing Avenue, Long Island City. Roth was appointed guardian of Johnnes Gies, 3 years old, and Mary Gies, 1 year old, on Oct. 10 last by the Surrogate of Kings County. He alleges in his complaint made before Justice Duffy that he exhibited his letter of guardianship to Halst and made a demand for the money. He subsequently made other demands, the last being made on May 8. He says the priest at that time pronounced over the trust the name of the end of three days to come. He says his present demand goes to July 10, when the priest will receive the money given to him by the mother of the children. Mrs. Gies died suddenly on June 1. The husband, who was a layman, died as the result of an accident two months ago. His wife is said to be in trouble with the hands of the priest. The latter says that there has been an expense attached to the care of the children and that he has no right to receive the money from any person legally entitled to receive the money.

Father Halst is the German Bohemian priest who remained away from Long Island for two months, owing to his desire to make troublous the Bishop about the establishment of a new Catholic church. Since his return he has held services in a German Bohemian school established by him.

A Thief Caught in the Shop Where Three Mosaics Numbered.

Mr. Moses was taking a nap in the rear of his meat and fruit store at 141 West street yesterday afternoon about three o'clock. Mrs. Moses was sleeping comfortably on a chair in front of the store by the fruit stand, and Louis, the 15-year-old son, was dozing on a barrel leaning against an awning post. Jacob T. Schaefer, 42 years old, of 63 Park avenue, Hoboken, was putting about the shop, and when he observed the boy asleep, and making his way to the door, he exacted therefrom $70 in $5 bills.

Just then Louis woke up with a start, saw Jacob at the door, and the other boy wake up, too. Louis grabbed Jacob, threw the bills under the desk and grabbed Louis. Louis hit Jacob, hit Louis. A policeman came, and Jacob was locked up, charged with grand larceny.
